PX 200-II

Ideal for great sound enjoyment - the closed, dynamic, supra-aural PX 200-II mini headphones provide excellent isolation to let you enjoy your music without being disturbed or disturbing others. They also provide outstanding wearing comfort with their soft leatherette ear pads. Like the PX 100-II, these mini headphones come with a steel-reinforced headband for long lasting strength and durability. An integrated volume control on the cable allows for enhanced usability and convenience.

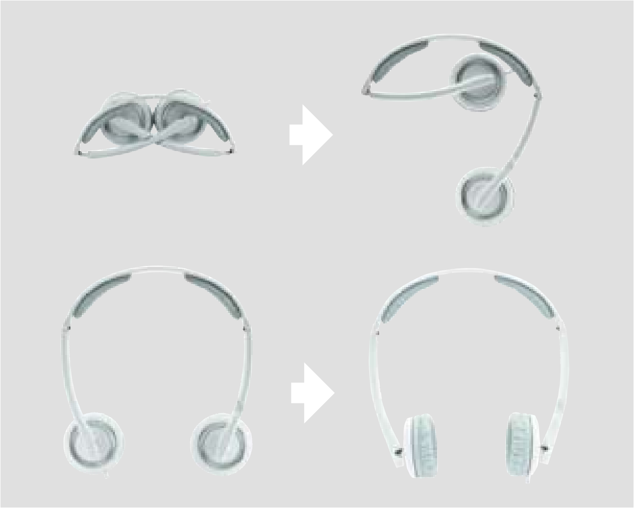

- Closed design – Blocks outside noise
- Single-sided cable for convenient handling
- Integrated volume control for enhanced usability and convenience
- Steel-reinforced headband for high durability
- Fold and flip: registered design – Allows the ear cups to be turned 90° and the headphones folded towards the headband (headphones will lock in open and closed positions)
- Convenient carrying case included
- Optimised for portable audio –
  Including MP3, iPod, iPhone, CD players and portable media players
